

HARTHA THERMAL POWER STATION IRAQ (Rehabilitation of two 200MW Thermal Power Units)

Hartha Project is aimed at the rehabilitation of two 200 MW Thermal Power Units near Basra, Iraq. The two units were partially destroyed during the First Gulf war.

Scope of the work assigned to ELC is to support the final Client in the development and management of the project, to assess the status of the units and of the equipment available at site, to perform inspection and factory tests to the sub-suppliers, to witness the required shop tests, and to supervise the Engineering, Procurement and Construction phases performed by the Main Contractor.